

NEW PHOTOGRAPHY / AUTUMN 2011

NEW PHOTOGRAPHY FROM THE FOTO8 AWARDS SHOW

CRANEKALMAN
BRIGHTON

Annie Collinge - Project with Sarah May. 35x35cm, framed £300

Pierre Dalpe - Allan y Jonathan. Taken while in residence in Mexico City, from an on-going series entitled 'Personae' in which I use digital imaging to create false twins or clones of my subjects. 51x51cm, unframed £600

FOTO8

Over the following pages we are pleased to show a selection of some of the best images from this year's Foto8 Awards Exhibition. The Foto8 Awards are held annually and are a celebration of the best in reportage, portraiture and landscape photography, featuring emerging and established photographers. Foto8 is the UK's leading photography magazine dedicated to reportage photography and photojournalism, and the Awards demonstrate the quality and diversity of contemporary photography currently being produced both in the UK and internationally.

To see more work from the Foto8 Awards Show, then visit the website – www.cranekalmanbrighton.com/foto82011

Chris Frazer Smith - Football, Hong Kong, 102x150cm, framed £3000

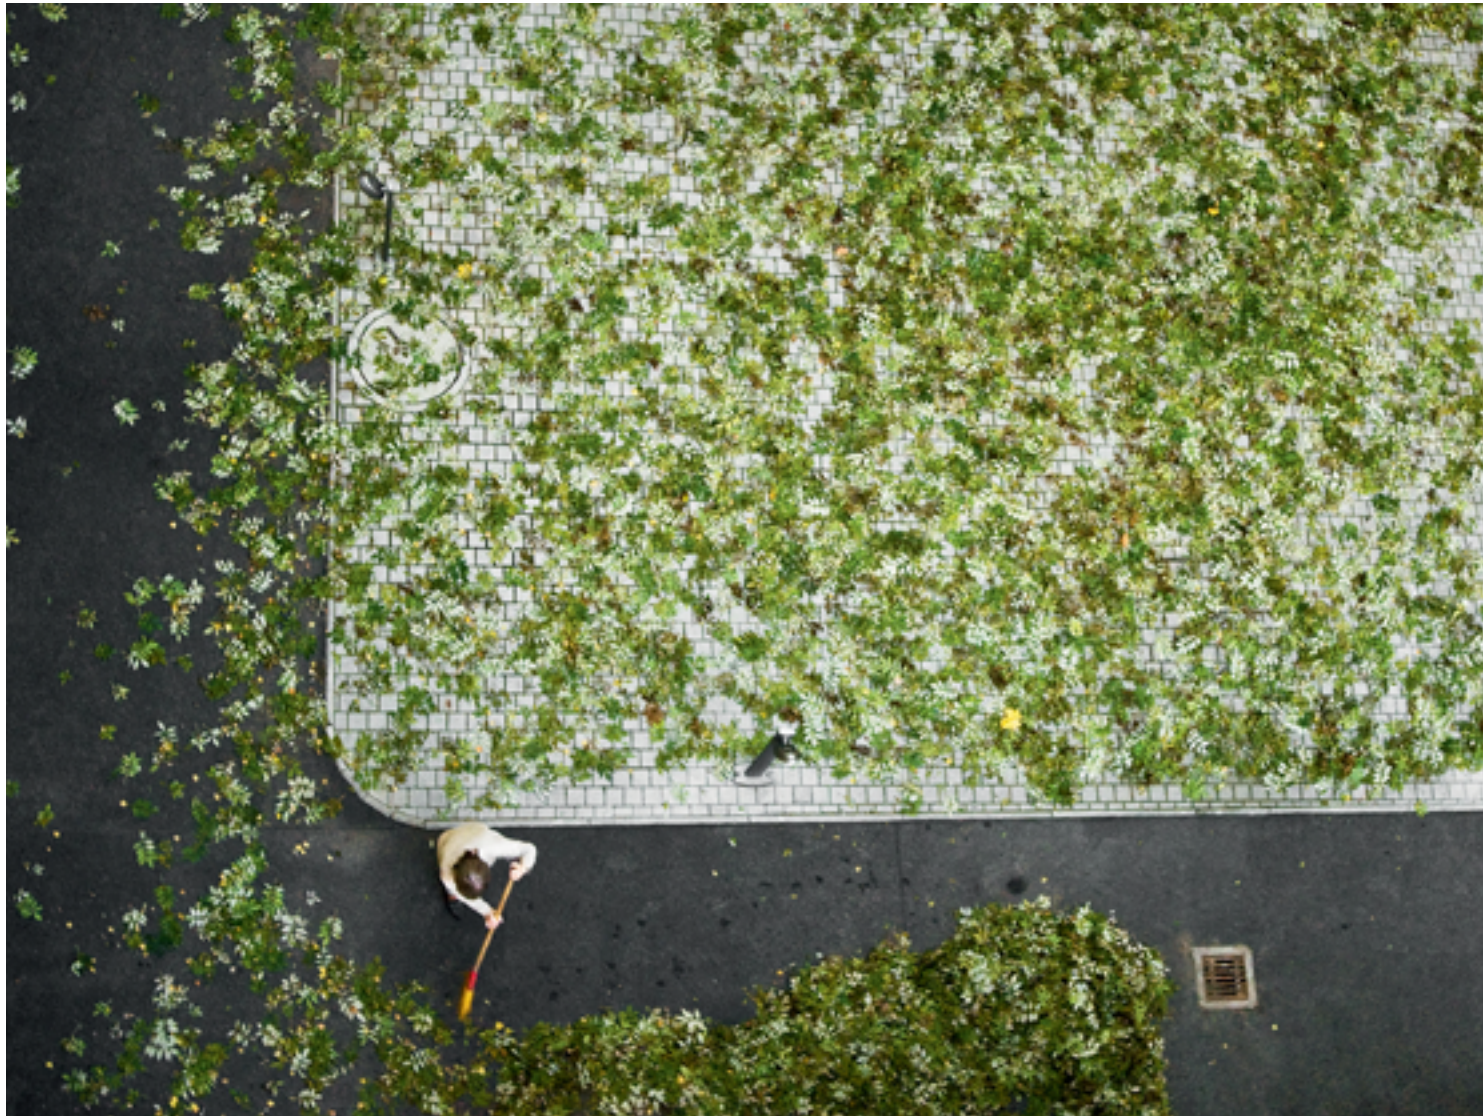

Kyla Medina - That Feeling of Falling, 76x51cm, unframed, £1220

James Morgan

Enal with Pet Shark. The majority of Indonesia's sea nomads are being moved ashore as a result of government pressure and environmental degradation. Some, however, cling on to the traditional way of life and still spend their entire lives at sea. 76x50cm, framed, £620

Robert Rutoed

Less Is More 1. "In 'Less Is More' I philosophise about God and the universe. And about what you can leave out without being left with nothing." 61x51cm, unframed, £250

NEWS

Gallery Update

Crane Kalman Brighton will be exhibiting for the first time at the Affordable Art Fair in Battersea Park, London SW11 from Wednesday 19th – Sunday 23rd October. The gallery will be at Stand G2 and will be exhibiting a range of gallery artists, including new work from Ellie Davies, Shiho Kito and Morgan Silk. Tickets will be available to purchase in advance and on the days themselves, but we will have a number of free and half price tickets available, so if you might be interested to attend, then please email back with your details to enquiries@cranekalmanbrighton.com. We hope you can come along to visit the stand.

Neil Craver, OmniPhantasmic, 2011

Ellie Davies, The Gloaming, 2011

Crane Kalman Brighton has also been working with Millennium Images and Milim Gallery on a new photographic competition and award entitled Peaches & Cream. The inaugural winners of the competition will have their work on display at the Dreamspace Gallery, 1-3 Dufferin Street, London EC1 from 5th - 18th October. The overall winning work will be selected on the night of the Private View – 6.30pm on Thursday, 6th October.

The Peaches & Cream competition has been searching for a new photographic artist to win a three year contract with Millennium Images, one of the UK's leading creative image libraries, and have the chance for one of their images to be published on the front cover of a forthcoming best-selling book. The exhibition will also feature the 10 runners-up in the competition including a Best Graduate Award.

CRANEKALMAN
BRIGHTON

www.cranekalmanbrighton.com

enquires@cranekalmanbrighton.com

01273 697096

07775 927 143